

A Call To Presence:

Understanding and Applying the Enneagram

*Wonder what it feels like to be “more alive”?
Want deeper clarity into your life’s purpose?*

*The Enneagram offers us a roadmap for understanding where we “go to sleep on ourselves” and reveals a spiritual path
for a richer, more fulfilling life.*

Through this two-day exploratory workshop:

-  Identify the opportunities and challenges of the Nine Personality Types as illuminated by the Enneagram.
-  Deepen your ability to create harmonious interpersonal relationships.
-  Learn about the hidden beliefs and motivations that shape your life.

Saturday and Sunday, June 20-21, 2009

9:30am-6:00pm

Business of Art Center, Colorado Springs, CO

$295.00 ($275.00 if registered by 5/15/09)

Contact Diana at 415-640-0805

16 CCEU’s available for coaches. Call for MFT credit status.

Facilitators:

Elizabeth Carrington-House, Master Certified Coach, is co-founder of Dolphin Leadership, Inc. an executive coaching/training company and founder of the North Bay Coaches Alliance. She is passionate about sharing the Enneagram with others as a map for heightening one’s personal awareness and experience of fulfillment.

Diana Redmond has been a student and teacher of numerous disciplines including meditation and Kashmir Shaivism. For her, the beauty of this ancient system lies in its ability to reveal our illusions, bring infinite compassion to others, and ourselves and connect us to a deeper Wisdom.

“Like most personal development professionals, I’d heard about the Enneagram before. ‘A Call to Presence’ was a significant stepping stone in helping me see with new eyes the applicability, awe, and wonder of this ancient tool.”

—Harriett Simon Salinger, MCC, LCSW